

Membership - AACAAAS

Mission Statement

The mission of AACAAAS since 1948 is and has been to promote a high standard of professional development among its members, to provide a single voice that conveys issues of concern that affect Alabama Agricultural Extension Agents and Specialist, to advance the basic importance and position of Alabama agriculture and other resources in our state economy, and to assist in furthering of the ways and means of improving the effectiveness of cooperative Extension work.

What

The AACAAAS is the professional Extension organization for agriculture related programming. Together, we all make Extension and agriculture stronger. Membership is a great way to be connected to your peers and to develop professionally.

Who

Our organization is geared toward Extension educators and other professionals who work in agriculture, horticulture, forestry and natural resources, 4-H youth development, community development, administration, aquaculture and Sea Grant, and related disciplines.

Benefits of Membership
