

RECORDS RETENTION

We are all very aware of the volume of paper that is passed through the Alabama Cooperative Extension System on a weekly basis. Maintaining records is an on-going problem because of space limitations. Auburn University has guidelines for us to follow dealing with the length of time records must be kept. Please refer to the Auburn University Records Management page for more information.