

DeKalb County Special Interest 4-H Clubs

2009-2010

Any young person ages 9 and up can join any of the following clubs. Also, any young person can be a member of as many clubs as they choose. You do not have to be a member of an in school club to participate! For questions, please contact Amy Burgess, 4-H Regional Extension Agent at 256.558.7443 or buregap@auburn.edu or visit <http://neal4hregion.blogspot.com>.

Plant Lovers and Tree Huggers 4-H Club: Youth in this club learn all that there is to know about the art of gardening, while having tons of fun doing so! For more information, please contact Mary Massingill, club leader at 256.659.2162 or at sunflowerwoman99@yahoo.com. This club meets at the Collinsville Library. Please call for meeting dates.

DeKalb County Junior Cattleman's 4-H Beef Club: Youth learn the latest and most up to date production and management practices concerning beef cattle. For more information, please contact Amy Burgess at the above contact information.

Paws, Claws, Hooves and Feathers 4-H Club: Youth in this club learn all about managing and producing dogs, poultry, goats, and many other animals. For more information, please contact Joyce Thompson, club leader at 256.623.2822 or at cmt@farmerstel.com.

DeKalb County 4-H Sewing Club: Youth in this club will learn several heritage skills such as general sewing, crochet, needlepoint, quilting, cross stitch and several other areas of sewing. For more information concerning this club, please contact Amy Burgess at the above info.

DeKalb County 4-H Horse Club: Youth in this club learn about production and management practices of horses, all while having fun!! For more information concerning this club, please contact Amy Burgess at the above contact information.

4-H is a community
of young people
across America
who are learning
leadership, citizenship and
life skills.