

2011 4-H Awards Program Sunday, November 6, 2011

The Alabama Cooperative Extension System Fayette County Office and Fayette County 4-H held their annual 4-H Awards Program on Sunday, November 6, 2011 from 2:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m. This awards program honors 4-H'ers who have done outstanding work or made significant achievements in 4-H during the 2010-2011 school year and summer/fall of 2011. About 50 Fayette County 4-H members received recognition for their work with in-school clubs, community clubs, and special interest clubs or events. For example, many of these 4-Her's placed 1st in county level contests or participated in special interest clubs.

Hallie Richardson received the Junior 4-H Member of the Year award and Cierra Kemp received the Senior 4-H Member of the Year award. These awards are based on several criteria including the number of events competed in, the number of programs the 4-H'er was active in, awards received or participation at the regional, state or national level, and leadership or community service
