

4-H COMPETITIVE EVENTS DAY AWARDS AND RECOGNITION PROGRAM
JULY 30, 2011
ALABAMA 4-H CENTER

Every aspect of Alabama 4-H, including contests, is designed to support the four Essential Elements of Youth Development: Belonging, Independence, Generosity and Mastery. Mastery includes the positive impact that a project has on the knowledge, skills, and views of a young person. Alabama Competitive Events Day celebrates the mastery Alabama 4-H members have developed.

Five Senior I and Senior II level Fayette County 4-Her's travelled to the 4-H Center in Columbiana on Saturday, July 30, 2011 to compete against other 4-H members from across the state of Alabama in various events. These Fayette County 4-H members qualified to compete at this event by placing first in the county contests held during March.
