64TH ANNUAL FAYETTE COUNTY AND DISTRICT DAIRY SHOW SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1, 2011

On Saturday, October 1, 2011, 10 Fayette County 4-H youth spent their morning showing 42 dairy cows at the 64th Annual Fayette County and District Dairy Show. Winners of the James Byars Showmanship Awards were: Beginner, Brady Hand; Junior, Jacie Renfro; Intermediate, Carson Hubbert; and Senior, Alisha Marcum. The James Byars Showmanship Award is given in memory of Mr. James Byars who spent many years working with the County and District Dairy shows and with 4-H youth in Fayette County.

Carson Hubbert showed Hubs Julica Dottie, the Junior Champion Female and WC Madman Netta, the Reserve Champion Female. Carson also showed the Reserve Champion Female and the Reserve Grand Champion Female, WD Madman Annie. Showing the Senior Champion Female and Grand Champion Female, Walkers Desert Rose, was Alisha Marcum.

The Fayette County 4-H Dairy Club and the Fayette County Extension Office would like to thank the following sponsors for their support of the County and District Dairy Show: the State Department of Agriculture & Industries; Mac-Jer Dairy Farm; Fayette County Farmers Federation; Lamar County Farmers Federation; Fayette Veterinary Clinic; Fayette AG Services, Inc.; Fayette Grain and Feed, LLC; Lawrence Farm & Lumber; The Animal Clinic; Fayette Branch of AFC; Citizens Bank of Fayette; and Judge James Moore. In addition we would like to thank the Fayette County Commission, John Gordon and Phillip Rushing for their support the programs of the Fayette County Extension Office and Fayette County 4-H.

The Fayette County 4-H Dairy Club extends a special thank you to Lanny McCaleb, Larry Hubbert, Libby Hubbert, Warren Griffith, Mac Washington, Ilana Stover, Wayne Robinson, Ronni Rena Brasher, and Jamie Thomas for their work in putting on the show.
