

Lauderdale County 4-H offers 5 Animal Clubs. We have a Lamb Club, a Heifer Club, a Goat Club, a Rabbit Club, and a Horse Club. Each club is led by a volunteer leader that works closely with the Lauderdale County 4-H Office.

Lauderdale County Lamb Club—Rob & Becky Cornelius

Participants in the lamb club participate in the Lauderdale County Youth Lamb Show, fair lamb shows, and the Alabama National Fair Lamb Show. The lamb club members also conduct fundraisers to raise prize money for the County Show.

Lauderdale County Goat Club—Paige Michael

Participants in the goat club participate in the Lauderdale County Youth Goat Show, fair goat shows, and the Alabama National Fair Goat Show. The goat club sells t-shirt ads as an annual fundraiser for the County Goat Show.

Lauderdale County Horse Club—Amy Coats

Participants in the horse club participate in Horse Educational Meetings conducted by the volunteer leader. During warm seasons they meet at an arena to learn safe riding skills.

Lauderdale County Heifer Club—Barry McCafferty & Brian Smith

Participants in the heifer club participate in the Lauderdale County Heifer Show, fair heifer shows, and the Alabama National Fair Heifer Show. The heifer club members participate in fundraisers to raise prize money for the annual County Show.

Lauderdale County Rabbit Club—Deann Woffard

Participants in the rabbit club participate at the North Alabama State Fair rabbit Show. They display all the hard work they have put into their projects throughout the year.
