4-H Regional Congress Winners!

The North Alabama Regional 4-H Congress for regions I and II was held May 5, 2007 at the John Sparkman Civic Center in Hartselle, Alabama. 4-H'ers from Cherokee, Colbert, DeKalb, Franklin, Jackson, Lauderdale, Lawrence, Limestone, Madison, Marshall and Morgan counties attended.

4-H, the state's oldest and largest youth development organization, is coordinated by the Alabama Cooperative Extension System through its historic affiliation with land-grant institutions Auburn University and Alabama A&M University. 4-H programs are administered by Extension agents and the thousands of volunteers who help agents.

Issued in furtherance of Cooperative Extension work in agriculture and home economics, Acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, and other related acts, in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The Alabama Cooperative Extension System (Alabama A&M University and Auburn University) offers educational programs, materials, and equal opportunity employment to all people without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, veteran status, or disability.
