

Nancy Graves
Regional Extension Agent
News Release

St. Clair 4-H Archery Team Competes at State 4-H Archery Competition

Several members of the St. Clair Stray Arrows 4-H Archery Club competed at the State 4-H Archery Competition held at the Civilian Marksmanship Program in Anniston on April 17th. The 4-H members were coached by 4-H Volunteer Leaders, Steve Ayres and Phillip Phillips.

Second place winners in the Junior Division of Recurve Bows without sights from the St. Clair Stray Arrows 4-H Archery Club (pictured l to r) include: Taylor Self, Meghan Dukes and Triston Hawkins. Not pictured is Brianna Wilkerson.

Winning third place in the Junior Division of Compound Bows from the St. Clair Stray Arrows 4-H Archery Club (pictured l to r) include: Sawyer Cambre, Michael Phillips, and Triston Hawkins. Not pictured is Corey Wilkerson.