

Nancy Graves
Regional Extension Agent, 4-H
News Release

Carter St. John Exhibits Reserve Supreme Champion Bred and Owned Heifer at 2011 Alabama Junior Beef Expo

Carter St. John, St. Clair County 4-H member, exhibited the Reserve Supreme Champion Bred and Owned Heifer at the 2011 Alabama Junior Beef Expo in Montgomery on March 13th. Carter's heifer was also the Champion Hereford heifer and Champion Bred and Owned Hereford heifer. In the showmanship classes, Carter placed second in class seventeen. First time exhibitor, Stewart Gallups, also a St. Clair County 4-H member, placed fifth in Rookie Showmanship class one. Rookie showmanship classes are open to youth who are showing for the first time at the Alabama Junior Beef Expo. The Alabama Junior Beef Expo was held March 11 through 13 at Garrett Coliseum in Montgomery.

Carter St. John shows his winning heifer at the 2011 Alabama Junior Beef Expo

Payton Allen of Chambers County (far left) won first place in Rookie Showmanship Class One at the Alabama Junior Beef Exp. Joining him are left to right: second place – Dustin Woodham, Coffee County; third place – Jessie Eason, Chilton County; fourth place – Hunter Ramsey, Calhoun County, and fifth place – Stewart Gallups, St. Clair County.