

Extension Presents 2009 Superior Service Awards

The Alabama Cooperative Extension System held its annual awards luncheon December 4th at the 4-H Youth Development Center in Columbiana. Dr. Gaines Smith, director, presented the 2009 Superior Service Awards.

The Superior Service Awards included individual and team awards. Individual award recipients received a certificate and a $500 stipend. The team award recipients received certificates and shared a $500 stipend.

The Superior Service Team Award was presented to Tonya Tomlin, a 4-H agent assistant I in St. Clair County and Lee Ann Clark, county Extension coordinator, St. Clair County, for their combined efforts to create the 4-H Clover Classroom, a unique summer learning opportunity for St. Clair County students.

Annie, J. Tyree, administrative support II, St. Clair County, received the Length of Service Awards for 35 years of service to the organization.

