

Alabama 4-H Trivia

Depending on what version of the Alabama 4-H history your pick up, the program started in Tuscaloosa or Walker or Franklin counties. What we know for sure is that Luther N. Duncan was appointed as Professor of Extension in the School of Agriculture in 1909. Thus began Alabama extension and 4-H.

Let's see if you can answer these trivia questions....

1. Boy's Corn clubs were:
 - a. social fraternities for boys;
 - b. designed to teach better farming methods
 - c. popular from 1945 to 1970
 - d. never very successful

2. Girl's Tomato Clubs were important because:
 - a. girls learned to grow better gardens
 - b. girls learned to can food safely
 - c. girls learned to eat a better variety of food
 - d. all of these

3. From the 2007 4-HPlus Report, how many 4-H members are in Alabama?
 - a. 80,000 approx.
 - b. 75,000 approx.
 - c. 60,000 approx.
 - d. 55,000 approx. [54,962]

4. From the 2007 4-HPlus Report, how many 4-H volunteers are in Alabama?
 - a. 1000 approx.
 - b. 1500 approx.
 - c. 2000 approx. [2122]
 - d. 2500 approx.

Look for more trivia on the Alabama 4-H web site.