The 2007 Alabama 4-H Horse Show was a huge success thanks in part to a great volunteer effort. Look at the numbers:

- More than 260 volunteer hours in five days
- Volunteer support would equal $7000 in salary, travel and per diem expenditures
- Volunteer involvement freed 4-H REAs for six days of county and regional programming

Volunteers chose their tasks from an Opportunity Board in the registration area. They could match their own skills and interests with event needs, from working in the paddock area to coordinating educational exhibits and facilitating the quiz bowl.

4-H parents, families, and friends are knowledgeable, creative people who are always ready and willing to help young people succeed.
