Electronic, Multiple Choice Version

(Adapted From: "PowerPoint Activities – Templates", Kim Overstreet, TRT; <http://teach.fcps.net/trt10/PowerPoint.htm>)

Overview

This is an interactive Powerpoint version of "Hunger Jeopardy" (complete with sound). This multiple choice version is recommended for use with younger youth that may find it more difficult to come up with the answers on their own. We also recommend distributing the Hunger Fact Packets to each team before beginning the game. Once you are familiar with how the PowerPoint game works (described in detail below), the game is quite simple to lead.

Goal

- The students will reinforce their knowledge of local and global hunger through an interactive, Jeopardy-like game.

Materials Needed

- Hunger Jeopardy game (PowerPoint, available on the CD)
- Hunger Facts Packets (1 per student or at least 1 per team)
- Pre/post questions (1 set per student)
- Computer with CD-rom drive
- Projector (to project game from computer onto a screen or wall)
- Hunger Information Presentation (optional; PowerPoint, available on the CD)

Instructions

Getting Started

1. Familiarize yourself with the operation of the Hunger Jeopardy game, especially the section "Playing the Game", Steps 2-5.
2. If giving the Hunger Information Presentation: Familiarize yourself with the information in the presentation. Present to students.
3. Open the Hunger Jeopardy Game PowerPoint. At the top of the screen, click on "Slide Show", then "View Show"
4. Divide the group into teams and hand out the Hunger Facts Packet; one per student or at least one per team.

5. Explain the rules: The team that goes first is to choose a category and point value. Any team can respond once you have read the multiple choice options aloud. Teams should raise their hands when they are ready to answer. You will call on the first team that raises their hands.

Playing the Game

1. Decide which team will go first. The team with the first turn chooses a category and a point value.
2. On the Hunger Jeopardy PowerPoint, with the mouse, click on the point value in the category they choose and read the statement aloud.
3. Move the cursor to the lower part of the screen until it becomes a hand. Click to reveal the multiple choice options and read them aloud. Choose the first team to raise their hands and allow them to answer.
4. After they respond, click on the Answer link in the lower right corner. This will reveal the correct answer. The correct answer will be underlined.
5. Move the cursor to the lower part of the screen until it becomes a hand. Click to return to the full game board screen.
6. If the team that responded got the answer correct, add those points to their total. They may now choose the next category and point value. If they did not get the answer correct, subtract those points from their total. The last team that responded correctly chooses the next category and point value.
7. Repeat steps 2-6 until all questions/answers have been revealed. This brings you to the Final Jeopardy Round. All teams participate.

The Final Jeopardy Round

1. The Final Jeopardy Question will automatically appear when all other questions have been used. Teams may wager up to their current score on this question.
2. As before, when the cursor is a hand, click the screen, this will reveal the multiple choice options.
3. Give teams a 15 second time limit, while they WRITE their answer.
4. At the end of the time limit, have each team reveal their answer and wager.
5. Click the Answer link to reveal the correct answer. For those teams that answered correctly, the wager is added to their current scores. For those teams that answered incorrectly, the wager is subtracted from their current scores.
6. The team with the highest score wins.
7. Administer pre/post questions to students. Collect when completed.

Paper, Multiple Choice Version

Overview

This is an interactive, multiple choice, paper version of “Hunger Jeopardy”. This multiple choice version is recommended for use with younger youth that may find it more difficult to come up with the answers on their own. We also recommend distributing the Hunger Fact Packets to each team before beginning the game. This version can be completed without a computer. Some preparation is necessary.

Goal

- The students will reinforce their knowledge of local and global hunger through an interactive, Jeopardy-like game

Materials Needed

- Hunger Facts Packets (one per student or at least one per team)
- Printed out Jeopardy Game slides (available on the CD):
 - 5 Category Slides (What Can Be Done, Terms, Statistics, Local Hunger, and Women & Children)
 - 25 Point Value Slides (5 each of 10, 20, 30, 40, and 50)
 - 25 Statement Slides
 - 25 Multiple Choice Options Slides
 - 1 Final Jeopardy statement slide
 - 1 Final Jeopardy multiple choice options slide
- Hunger Jeopardy Facilitator’s Packet
- Materials to put Jeopardy Game board together (ex. 26 file folders and tape or glue)

Preparation

1. Place file folder flat on surface so the fold is at the top.
2. Attach the point value slide to this surface.
3. Open the folder and attach the statement slide to the upper surface.
4. Attach the answer slide to the lower surface.
5. Repeat for all point value, statement, and multiple choice sets (26 total).

6. Set game up as a grid with the category titles across the top and corresponding completed folders below, lowest to highest point value.

Instructions

Getting Started

1. Divide the group into teams and hand out Hunger Facts Packets; one per student or at least one per team.
2. Explain the rules: The team that goes first is to choose a category and point value. Any team can respond once you have read the multiple choice options. Teams should raise their hands when they are ready to answer. You will call on the first team that raises their hands.

Playing the Game

1. Decide which team will go first. The team with the first turn chooses a category and a point value.
2. Open the folder to reveal the statement and multiple choice options. Read the statement and multiple choice options aloud. Choose the first team to raise their hands and allow them to answer. Refer to the Hunger Jeopardy Facilitator's Packet for the correct response. Remove this folder so it is not selected again.
3. If the team that responded got the answer correct, add those points to their total. They may now choose the next category and point value. If they did not get the answer correct, subtract those points from their total. The last team that responded correctly to a question chooses the next category and point value.
4. Repeat steps 2 and 3 until there are no more statements left to choose. It is now the Final Jeopardy round. All teams participate.

The Final Jeopardy Round

1. Teams write down their wagers, up to their current point total.
Teams should not yet reveal their wagers.
2. Unfold the Final Jeopardy statement and multiple choice options.
Read aloud to youth.
3. Give students a brief time limit (~10 seconds) to write their response.
4. For each team with a correct answer, add their wager to their total score. For each team with an incorrect answer, subtract their wager from their total score. The team with the highest score wins.
5. Administer Pre/Post questions to students. Collect when completed.
