Community Leader Service Award

About the Award

Initiated in 2006, the Alabama Cooperative Extension System and Alabama Department of Public Health honored an exceptional individual within Alabama who made volunteerism and community service a way of life. The recipient embodied a sense of caring and responsibility for others that connects citizens and solves community problems. Their extraordinary contributions beyond their normal job duties are performed to enhance community life.

This year two awards will be presented. The award winners will be someone who makes selfless and extraordinary contributions, in addition to those associated with their normal job duties, for the betterment of the local community and beyond. The award recipients will receive a complimentary pass to the Annual Diabetes and Obesity Conference, an award and recognition at the Diabetes and Obesity Conference Awards Banquet on April 3, 2008.

Nomination Information

Nomination forms and associated instructions are available at the bottom of this page. The completed nomination documents should be sent to the Alabama Cooperative Extension System by the specified date in the instructions. Any person may nominate. (Members of the Awards Committee are ineligible for the award.)

Two awards can be made annually, one for overall community service and/or one for health-related outreach. These are intended to be one-time awards to each recipient. (Consideration may be given to naming the awards in honor/memory of someone recognized for their leadership and commitment in these two areas of service.)

Forms should be received or postmarked no later than Friday, March 14, 2008. Please refer to our website for additional information www.aces.edu/diabetesconf.
