

The World I See

A 4-H Photography Event
For Junior 4-H

Photography is a great hobby. It helps you express yourself. It can also be a great way to earn money.

The World I See lets you:

- Be creative.
- Take great photos.
- Be an artist.

What You Will Learn

- The World I See will help you learn the basics of good photography.
- The World I See will help you learn photographic composition and techniques.
- The World I See will help you learn to explore your own choices.
- The World I See will help you develop skills that will be useful in a variety of careers.

Something to Think About

Can you use what you have learned to help others? Service to others is an important part of 4-H.

The Rules

- Photos may be in color, black-and-white or sepia.
- Prints must be 5"x7" or larger. They should be no larger than 18" x 18".
- You may use a film or digital camera.
- Do you need to lighten your photo or fix the color? You may make small changes using your computer or darkroom.
- Do not submit photos in frames or with cut-out boards. Photos should be simply mounted flat on plain white or black poster board or foam board.
- Mount board size may be no larger than 20" x 20".
- Your name, date of birth, county and address must on the back of the photo.
- Do not include titles or other information on the front of the mount board.
- One photo per entrant.
- Photos must have been taken by the youth submitting the entry.
- Photos must have been taken during the current 4-H year.
- Photos will be laid flat on a table for judging. Use no easels or props.
- You must accompany your photograph to the competition. Be ready to talk about your work.

Issued in furtherance of Cooperative Extension work, acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, and other related acts, in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The Alabama Cooperative Extension System (Alabama A & M University and Auburn University) offers educational programs, materials, and equal opportunity employment to all people without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, veteran status, or disability.