4-H Volunteerism Is A Blast!

Mark your calendar if you are willing to share the best program you have done and want an opportunity to win money for your 4-H Club or just want to learn something new! All Alabama 4-H volunteers, parents and staff are invited to the Forum on February 12-13, 2010.

To win $50 for 4-H Club Posters or Exhibits go to www.Alabama4H.com click on “Volunteer” and Scroll down the page for the information. These will be displayed at the Forum with cash prizes presented at the Forum.

If you have a workshop idea go to www.Alabama4H.com click on “Volunteer” and Scroll down the page for the “Call for Presentations.” Volunteers need to share ideas. This can also be a fun craft, hobby or fund raising idea. Deadline is January 7, 2010. Approved volunteer presenters are waived the registration fee of $30. (Lodging and/or meals are not waived.)

Nominations for the Alabama 4-H Volunteer of the Year and/or the Terrell and Anne Guthrie Award are being accepted. For those forms and where to send the nominations go to www.Alabama4H.com click on “Volunteers” and Scroll down the page for the nominations. Deadline is January 28, 2010.

Scholarship Applications from Senior 4-H Members are being accepted. Let graduating seniors know that they are eligible. Go to www.Alabama4H.com click on “Volunteers” and Scroll down the page for the application. Applications must be received by the deadline of February 10, 2010

Registration for the Forum will be due on January 7, 2010. Total cost for the two day-one night event will be $104.00 per person when sharing a room. Fees include registration, meals and lodging. There is a one-day Saturday registration fee of $40.00 including registration and lunch. After January 7, a late registration includes a $30.00 penalty. Go to www.Alabama4H.com click on “Volunteers” and Scroll down the page for the registration form.
