

Let's Go Exploring! A Survey for 4-H Young People

Name: _____ Age: _____
Club Name: _____ County: _____ Date: _____

What excites and inspires you? What do you want to learn about? How can 4-H help you develop and discover? In order to plan 4-H activities and programs, we need to know what interests you. Dream big – and write it down!

What would you like to learn to help prepare for tomorrow's jobs?

What is one way that you could make your community better?

What's something you would like to learn that isn't taught in school?

What hobby or fun activity would you like to try out – or develop further?

What is something you would like to know about to make yourself a better person?

What are some of your special interests? Everything that you want to learn about or just try out. With #1 the highest, number 1 – 5 the ones that you are most interested in.

- Animals Robotics Public Speaking Gardening Rockets Child Care
- Home Pet Care Computers Leadership Wildlife Art Cooking
- Nutrition Photography Sewing Dance 4-H Camp Biking
- Jewelry Making Music Pottery Hiking/Camping Health & Fitness
- Web Site Design Putting on Plays Writing Stories or Poems Careers
- Travel Power Point Life in Other Countries Woodworking Fishing

Now, list five of your interest that are not on this list!

Chuck Hill and Molly Gregg, 4-H Program Specialists
Issued in furtherance of Cooperative Extension work, acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, and other related acts, in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The Alabama Cooperative Extension System (Alabama A & M University and Auburn University) offers educational programs, materials, and equal opportunity employment to all people without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, veteran status, or disability.