

Have I Got a Story!

The 4-H Storytelling Event
For Junior 4-H

Do you like to tell jokes or listen to stories? Well the 4-H Storytelling Event is just for you!

Have I Got A Story! lets you:

- Share your thoughts and feelings.
- Entertain others.
- Become more self-assured.

What You Will Learn:

- To pick out a good story.
- To make choices.
- To tell a story before a live audience.
- To understand a story or create a new one.

The Rules

- Stories may be told individually or by two people telling a story in tandem. Teams and individuals will be judged in the same event.
- In Junior Level events, stories should be 2 to 4 minutes for individuals and 4 to 6 minutes for two people.
- Your story must be told without notes.
- You may use simple props which do not distract from your story.
- Your story should be something you learned to tell this year.
- Try to tell a story that has not been used in 4-H before.
- Costumes are acceptable, but are not required.
- Your story may come directly from a book or another source or it may be adapted or your own original story.

Something to Think About

Can you use what you have learned to help others? Service to others is an important part of 4-H.

Issued in furtherance of Cooperative Extension work, acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, and other related acts, in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The Alabama Cooperative Extension System (Alabama A & M University and Auburn University) offers educational programs, materials, and equal opportunity employment to all people without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, veteran status, or disability.