

Speak-Up Alabama
Informative Public Speaking
& Persuasive Public Speaking
For Junior 4-H

Do you want to become a better speaker? Do you like to talk in front of a group? The two Speak-Up Alabama contests are just for you!

- Persuasive Public Speaking means trying to change people's minds. Do you want youth to start exercising? You must persuade them. Do you want a community skate park? You'll need to persuade people.
- Informative Public Speaking is about the facts. Do you think Rosa Parks was important? Tell your audience about her. Do you think computers are fun to use? Tell your audience why.

Speak-Up Alabama lets you:

- Be a better speaker.
- Express yourself.
- Be aware of good and bad things going on in the world.

What You Will Learn:

- How to choose a subject.
- How to learn about your subject.
- How to write a speech.
- How to give a speech.

Rules

- Your speech must be new. Don't copy it from anything that someone else has written. Don't use a speech you already gave.
- No props or costumes.
- Junior speeches must be between 3 and 5 minutes.
- You may use notes, but do not read your speech.
- Your speech must be about what is going on with American youth, families, and society.
- Bring a written copy of your speech.

Something to Think About

Can you use what you have learned to help others? Service to others is an important part of 4-H.

Issued in furtherance of Cooperative Extension work, acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, and other related acts, in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The Alabama Cooperative Extension System (Alabama A & M University and Auburn University) offers educational programs, materials, and equal opportunity employment to all people without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, veteran status, or disability.