

Bringing Gardening and Children Together through Junior Master Gardener

Dates: April 23, 2009 (Anniston) & April 24, 2009 (Tuscaloosa)

Partners

Alabama A&M and Auburn Universities

Alabama Wildlife Federation

Description: The purpose of this workshop is to provide background information and educational activities to educators, administrators, Extension personnel, and community volunteers who wish to work with youth through a youth-centered gardening program. During this workshop, participants will learn about the Junior Master Gardener (JMG) program and participate in a variety of hands-on activities that are available through the program. In addition, participants will learn how to go about setting up gardens that are student centered as well as about basic gardening information such as plant propagation, developing garden areas, and other topics related to gardening successfully with children.
