

Poisonous Plants of the Southeastern United States

P*oisonous Plants of the Southeastern United States* provides up-to-date information on the more common poisonous plants that are associated with livestock poisonings. The book contains color photos of more than 50 species of poisonous plants and provides detailed descriptions of plants, habitats, toxic principles, symptoms of poisoning, and treatments.

Although Poisonous Plants of the Southeastern United States was developed specifically for livestock producers, it will be useful to anyone interested in learning to recognize some of the common poisonous plants in the Southeast.

Send order to the following:

Publications Distribution
6 Duncan Hall
Alabama Cooperative Extension System
Auburn University, AL 36849-5632

Published by the Alabama Cooperative Extension System (Alabama A&M and Auburn Universities) in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture. An Equal Opportunity Educator and Employer.

ANR-975, Poisonous Plants of the Southeastern United States, Order Form

Name _____

Mailing Address _____

Telephone Number _____ Fax _____ E-mail _____

Visa _____ MasterCard _____ Credit Card No. _____ Exp. Date _____

Cardholder Signature _____

Purchase Order Number _____

Number of copies _____ @ $10 each OR _____ copies @ $7 each for resale (minimum of 20 books)

Total enclosed _____

Price includes shipping in the continental U.S. Make checks payable to Alabama Cooperative Extension System. For information, call 334-844-1592.