ABOUT KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Ms. Angela Lawrence has more than 20 years of personnel experience and is currently a human resource specialist with the United States Army. She earned a bachelor’s of science degree in business administration from Savannah State University, Savannah, Georgia. She loves being the mother of two daughters and three grandchildren. They recently moved to the Huntsville area.
ABOUT KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Mrs. Patricia Henderson is an assistant professor in Apparel, Merchandising and Design Area design in AAMU’s DFCS and an urban Extension specialist. In addition to teaching, her responsibilities include student advisement, and directing the service learning network at AAMU. Mrs. Henderson has more than 25 years of experience as a workshop presenter.

Dr. Cynthia M. Smith is a professor and chair of the DFCS at AAMU where she is involved in teaching, research, advisement, and management. Prior to assuming this position in August of 2004, Dr. Smith served as coordinator of the AMD. She is currently participating with a group of eight 1890 FCS administrators to implement an online minor and certificate program in family financial planning.

Ms. Lisa Taylor is a counselor at ITT Technical Institute. She earned a bachelor’s degree in communications study, and a bachelor of science in business administration with a concentration in management and marketing. She recently relocated to the Huntsville area.

Mrs. Rosalie M. Lane is an Extension specialist in housing and urban development. She has a BA in communications and a master’s in urban and regional planning from AAMU. She has worked in the corporate environment and administrative areas for more than 27 years. She has worked with ACES for 14 years, and enjoys working with young people and the community.
