

Auburn University
Block & Bridle Club

Dear Coaches & Contestants:

The Auburn University Block & Bridle Club and the Department of Animal Sciences will be hosting a 4-H/FFA Livestock Judging Contest/Workout on Saturday, April 26, 2008. The location will be the Stanley P. Wilson Beef Unit located at 500 Shug Jordan Parkway on the campus of Auburn University. Contest registration will begin at 8AM and the contest will start at 9AM.

The contest is open to teams and individuals and pre-registration is required. The contest will follow 4-H Livestock Judging Contest rules. Each 4-H club, FFA chapter, county/school/region may have as many teams as desired. There will be a Junior and Senior Division with January 1, 1993 birthdate separating the divisions. The projected species to judge will be beef cattle, sheep and swine, with oral reasons and questions on 3 classes. Officials will discuss placings at the conclusion of the contest. All contestants will be eligible for awards. Winners will be announced and awards will be presented.

The entry fee, $5 per contestant and coach, will go to defray the expense of meal and awards. Entry forms should be postmarked no later than APRIL 22, 2008. If this deadline is missed, please contact us directly, as it is the desire of the B&B Club to allow all potential contestants the opportunity to practice their judging skills.
