

Farmer 101

A Series for Small, Beginning or Transitioning Farmers

Location: 1714 Tally Ho St., Cullman, Al

North Alabama Agriplex (except last 2 meetings)

February 2—March 22, 2016—Tuesday evenings from 6:00-9:00 PM
Pre-Registration Required and cost per class is $10 or entire course for $50
Mail fee to: County Extension Office, 402 Arnold St NE, Cullman 35055
Call or email Tony Glover: 256-737-9386 Cullmancounty@auburn.edu

Speakers and Topics:

- Feb 2 Basic Soils - Management and Improvement and Cover Crops: Dr. Charles Mitchell, Extension Soil Specialist, Auburn University and Mr. Arnold Caylor, Director of the North Alabama Horticulture Research Center, Cullman
- Feb 9 Beef Cattle and Forage crops - Gerald Thompson, Regional Extension Agent
- Feb 16 Small Scale Vegetable Production: Mr. Doug Chapman, Regional Extension Agent and Dr. Ayanava Majumdar, Auburn University Extension Entomologist
- Feb 23 Farm Management—Farm Service Agency(FSA) Services, Natural Resource Conservation Services (NRCS), Farm Financial Planning: NRCS; Mr. Robert Page, ACES Farm Management Program
- March 1 Small Fruit Production - Strawberries, Blueberries, Blackberries and Grapes: Mr. Mike Reeves, Regional Extension Agent, North Alabama
- March 8 Beekeeping and Syrup Making, Mr. Phillip Garrison, Goldvine Farms
- March 15 Small Livestock Management—Sheep and Goats: Mr. Robert Spencer, Extension Area Specialist—Animal Science and Forages (this meeting to be held at County Extension office)
- March 22 Protected Production: High Tunnel Season Extension, and Hydroponics: Dr. Ayanava Majumdar, Auburn University Extension Entomologist and Mr. Jeremy Pickins, Research Associate, Auburn University (this meeting to be held at County Extension office)

