Retirement Planning Resources

The first step is to calculate how much you need to retire. The Employee Benefit Research Institute, Ballpark Estimator has a calculator to get a basic idea of how much you need to save before you retire.

The Department of Labor has a site Taking The Mystery Out Of Retirement Planning with information that is valuable to everyone. The booklet, which includes worksheets, is specifically designed to help those who are about a decade from retirement. Publications And Reports links to publications and consumer information on health benefits and retirement planning.

Retirement Savings Toolkit links to English and Spanish publications about retirement savings.

Senior Citizens Resources This USA.gov site provides a variety of financial planning tools, including a Federal Employees Retirement Calculator.

Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) If you have or had a job with a defined benefit pension, the PBGC may be protecting your pension.

If your pension plan was terminated, you may be able to use the PBGC's Find an Unclaimed Pension tool to find out if you have unclaimed benefits.
