4-H Football Day Volunteer and Chaperon Reminders

4-Hers and their parents traveling to 4-H Football Day as a family should know that parents are responsible for the transportation, supervision and care of their own children while at 4-H Football Day.

County 4-H groups traveling to 4-H Football Day should follow these guidelines:

- Direct Volunteers who will transport and/or serve in a supervisory role of 4-Hers should be completely screened and have completed all 8 mandatory training modules. These adults should be registered and approved in 4HONLINE with all the appropriate screening and training dates included. County groups should have 1 direct volunteer per 10 registered 4-H members.

- Resource Volunteers who will be traveling with the group but WILL NOT transport, supervise or have direct contact with youth should be enrolled in 4HONLINE as resource volunteers.

- 4-H County Teams should review the Youth Code of Conduct and the 4-H Volunteer Behavior Guidelines with participants before the trip.

- A completed 4-H Youth Consent Form for each participant should accompany county groups during transport and during 4-H Football Day.

SUPERVISION REMINDERS:

Alabama 4-H strictly prohibits ACES staff and 4-H Volunteers from being left alone with one child unless they are the parent or legal guardian of that child. No Exceptions.

There will be approximately 85,000+ guests in the Auburn Area on 4-H Football Day. County groups and families should stay together in groups and not allow 4-H members to walk alone. This is for the safety of all involved in the event.
