ALABAMA 4-H

Auburn University

Being involved with 4-H as a volunteer has been such a wonderful experience for me. The program teaches confidence, self-esteem, leadership, responsibility, and being a team player, to name a few. It has been gratifying in my more than 11 years with 4-H to watch youngsters grow into amazing young adults who are making positive contributions to their communities. I feel strongly that
